

Candidate for Events director

ALINA ZAHARIA

Event manager and Responsible of H&S Milano branch of Officina Réclame, I graduated in Business Management at Academic of Economic Studies of Bucharest – Romania, and traveled and lived in different countries: Singapore, USA, South Korea, France.

Keeping my concentration on the carrier my free time is divided between: trekking, gardening and different sports activities.

Starting the collaboration with you, I was touched by the partnership between women that you were able to recreate, and by the interesting and useful themes that you propose during your events and your team building.

I'm no stranger to mentoring, but I'm fascinated by how your organization manages to encourage and help women managers to develop or refine tools to deal with various job issues and their careers.

Personally, being part of the board as an Events Director will be an honor, and I hope to be able to bring new ideas, tools and initiatives with the aim of making PWN Milan a reference point for more and more women managers. I am ready to put at your disposal my organizational skills, and my acquired knowledge.
